EVERY INDICATION THAT THE PRESIDENT IS NEARING HIS END.

BLOOD POISON IN THOROUGH POSSESSION OF HIS SYSTEM.

Bulletins from the Sick Room—The Physicians Consider that there is Little or no Hope—It is Decided not to Remove him from the White House.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

[illegible] A. M.—The president's treatment at the night [illegible] taken liquid food [illegible] at intervals and the [illegible] have not been renewed. No modification of the parotid swelling has yet been observed. His general condition is much the same as at this hour yesterday. Pulse 108, temperature [illegible], respiration [illegible].

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25, 10:30 A. M.—Dr. Bliss reports the condition of the president this forenoon about the same as yesterday forenoon, except that the pulse is a little higher. He was somewhat restless at times during the night and did not sleep quite as well as on Tuesday night. There has been no perceptible change in the appearance of the inflamed parotid gland, and two or three days may elapse before the swelling subsides. Taking everything into consideration the president has not gained any ground since yesterday morning.

NOON.—Reports from the sick room are to the effect that the glandular suppuration is giving the doctors serious concern and this is corroborated by a bulletin just issued, which stated that swelling has not diminished perceptibly and but a few drops of pus discharged. Feverish symptoms are also on the increase, and doctors are reported to have resorted to enemata [illegible] the bowels refusing to retain injections. A feeling of gloom is again making itself apparent at the White House. Not the least alarming feature in the case is that the doctors keep themselves shut up and refuse to be interviewed. Another bad evening is looked for at this writing.

12:30 P. M.—Since the issue of this morning's bulletin, a rise in the president's temperature similar to that which occurred yesterday morning, has been observed. His pulse is somewhat more frequent. From the incision in the parotid swelling a few drops were discharged this morning. The size of the swelling is not diminished. In other respects his condition has not perceptibly changed. Pulse 112, temperature 99.6, respiration 19.

6:30 P. M.—There has been little change in the president's condition since the noon bulletin. His pulse is now the same as then. His temperature has risen somewhat, but is not so high as yesterday evening. There has been a slight discharge of pus during the day from the incision in the parotid swelling, but it is not diminishing in size. No unfavorable change has been observed in the condition of the wound. He has taken by the mouth a sufficient supply of liquid food. At present his pulse is 112, temperature 99.4, respiration 19.

Alarming.

10 P. M.—Although no information can yet be obtained directly from the attending surgeons, it is understood that the president's case has taken an unfavorable turn this evening, and that the swollen parotid gland, throughout which pus is now forming in small cells or pockets, etc., threatens immediately dangerous consequences and unless a favorable change takes place within the next 24 hours, the worst is apprehended.

10:45 P. M.—A private dispatch from the White House says: "Appearances at the president's chamber indicate that the case has taken a serious turn."

Dr. Boynton Discouraged.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Aug. 25, 12 M.—Doctor Boynton in an interview with a reporter at 12:10, replied to questions as follows:

How is the president to-day, doctor, in your judgment? Ans.—I do not think he is any better.

But does he hold his own? Ans.—Well, I cannot point to any particular symptom and say that it is noticeably worse, but the impression which his general condition makes upon me to-day is a little less favorable. I don't feel quite as much encouraged as I did yesterday.

What are the features of the case which seem to you most disquieting? Ans.—Condition of the blood and extreme weakness.

He has not then, made any gain in strength since yesterday morning? Ans.—I cannot see that he has.

Does he not take food as well as yesterday? Ans.—Yes, quite as well. His stomach seems to maintain its improved condition.

Then if the stomach performs its functions properly and nourishment continues to be well assimilated, will not the condition of his blood change for the better?—Ans.—It will in time. The poison will be eliminated from the blood if the patient's strength and vitality hold out. It is a question of time and endurance.

The wound continues to do well, does it not? Ans.—Yes, but I don't think the condition of the wound is so important a consideration. The president is very weak and is not yet gaining strength very slowly, if at all. The great question is can he be sustained through this period of prostration? If he can, I think he will eventually rally from the depression caused by the septic taint in his blood, and finally recover.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Dr. Boynton told a Tribune reporter this morning that he thought the president would yet get well. "In less than twenty days I should say, if there are no backsets, he will be out of danger. There is a general opinion throughout the country that the physicians in attendance should administer solid food, but those who hold this opinion simply know nothing about the case. The president has not had much of any real appetite since he was shot. Certainly he had never been hungry. He has lost perhaps eighty pounds since this wound was received, but his emaciation is confined mainly to his body and limbs. His face shows little signs of the suffering through which he has passed. It still retains almost its normal fulness and his eyes are neither dull nor sunken. To see his face alone one could not realize that he has been so sick. In fact little change could be noticed."

A Herald reporter also interviewed Dr. Boynton who said he had no doubt the president was suffering from blood poisoning but whether pyæmia or septicæmia he could not undertake to say.

Bliss Interviewed.

In an interview a little before two o'clock this afternoon Bliss said that the condition of the president is substantially unchanged. The pulse at the noon examination was higher than at the same hour yesterday, but the patient was so weak and debilitated that transient fluctuations of the pulse to the extent of six or eight beats, has no great significance. Any slight disturbance or excitement is sufficient to cause it. I have seen his pulse quickened four or five beats merely by turning him over in bed. His pulse was taken at noon, when it was highest. Just before I came out of his room, ten minutes ago it was back again to 104. That will show you how uncertain a single observation of the pulse is as an indication of his condition. As far as his temperature is concerned it is about the same as yesterday at noon.

Do you think he has gained any strength since yesterday? Ans.—No; I cannot see that he has, but think he is holding his own. He is taking nourishment very nicely to-day, and is quite as well as yesterday. It was the opinion of his attendants and Mrs. Garfield that he seemed a little brighter this morning.

What is the condition of the inflamed gland? Ans.—It has not changed much in appearance, and is one of the most troublesome features in the case. We got a little more pus out of it to-day, but the swelling remains about the same. In conclusion, Bliss reiterated the assurance that the condition of the patient was no worse to-day than yesterday, although there cannot be said to be any improvement.

An Outside Special—"His Hours are Numbered."

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—A Times special from Washington says: Evidently the final crisis in the president's case has arrived. The reticence of the doctors during the day is finally explained. The surgeons have given him up and are now preparing to take desperate chances. Dr. Hamilton last night advised the removal of the president from the White House to the Tallapoosa as a last chance for saving his life. This course was not approved by Dr. Bliss and one or two of the consulting surgeons and it was thought best to have a conference with all the surgeons in the case. Secretary Lincoln, who came out for a few moments in answer to inquiries of a Times correspondent, said: "There is no concealing the fact that the condition of the president is absolutely desperate. The opening of the parotid gland resulted in the discharge of so small an amount of pus that surgeons fear that this incision will not relieve it sufficiently so that sloughing (a fatal symptom in his case) is possible."

It can be stated upon the highest authority that whatever decision the surgeons make Mrs. Garfield will not consent to the president's removal. She believes that removing him would merely accelerate his death. The surgeons are bowed down with the great responsibility of the question presented to them by Dr. Hamilton. Dr. Bliss, when he left the executive mansion to go to the depot to meet Dr. Agnew, reeled like a drunken man. He was so overcome with fatigue and anxiety that his face was almost black. The circles surrounding his eyes were pitiably dark while his lips were pale. His eyes were dead, dull and spiritless. He has maintained a contest all day with Dr. Hamilton over the removal of the president. Dr. Bliss believes that if he is moved he will die in transit. The public should be prepared for the worst, as everybody about the White House now concedes that the hours of the president are numbered.

The Question of Removal.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Washington special: To Dr. Hamilton is ascribed the [illegible] from the president's removal. Your correspondent is aware that Secretary [illegible] has been from the start one of the strongest [illegible] of the president from the malaria region of the White House. The day after the president was shot, Blaine suggested to [illegible] the desirability of getting him [illegible] the reach of the malarial influences which [illegible] the executive mansion. Bliss was one of the earnest [illegible] Blaine's theory [illegible] that it would be positively dangerous to move the patient and declared [illegible] for the president [illegible] malaria [illegible]. [illegible] that his removal [illegible] but undeniably it will [illegible] that unless he is removed he has not the ghost of a chance to live. The very worst [illegible]

Discouraging Talk.

[illegible] These and other [illegible] considerations [illegible] The surgeons [illegible] have checked [illegible] that he was no worse than yesterday and that the blood [illegible] and that the patient is weaker now than yesterday, though they think there is no cause for any alarm. The history of the [illegible] to-night shows the president losing or slowly gaining strength. The loss is very slight but the fact that it is lost is not an encouraging sign. Dr. Boynton this evening told Mrs. Garfield that the president was in his opinion a little worse than yesterday and that hope was not as bright. Mrs. Garfield said that she expected [illegible] and added that she was yet hopeful. The decision of the physicians not to remove him was not communicated to the president until this eve. He has in the past few days been somewhat uneasy on this point, insisting that he should be removed either to Mentor or taken on a trip down the river. During the day he did not refer to the subject, but at [illegible] to-night became again exercised about it. He said that he wanted to be moved right away. Dr. Bliss then told him that there had been a consultation of all the physicians and that the decision was that there should be no removal at this time. The president said in a whisper: "I cannot talk above that tone—I suppose you know best, but I would like to get away."

Gen. Sherman, who has been anticipating the removal of the president for several days, has caused a number of stout soldiers to be drilled in carrying men on a stretcher. They have attained remarkable dexterity and can carry extended on a stretcher without disturbing a glass of water in his hand, a 150 pound man for half an hour. The old mansion at Arlington has been offered as a place to which the president can be removed. A widow lady who has control of the house, has written, saying that her whole mansion will be placed at the disposal of the president and fitted up for his comfort and reception if it should be decided to remove him thither. Of course, it having been decided not to remove him, the invitation cannot be accepted. There are, however, many who think the admirably located old house, is a very desirable location for the president, and one which would be better suited to his condition than either a trip down the river or removal to Mentor or the Soldiers' Home, if he should be in such a condition as to render a change advisable.

Blaine's Views.

Blaine to Lowell: The president has lost ground to-day. Some of his symptoms this afternoon and evening are of the gravest character. The condition of the swollen gland and of the pulse and temperature suggest serious and alarming complications. His mind at intervals has been somewhat clouded and wandering. His strength fails, but he still swallows liquid food of a nourishing character and apparently digests it. On this one fact rests the hope that still is left of a reaction.

Gloomy at the White House.

The cabinet met early this evening and remained until a late hour at the White House. Most of them were accompanied by their wives. All that could be got from a stray doctor, now and then, that was of any interest was that no improvement could be announced and that there was not thought to be any change since yesterday. Certainly there have not appeared to-night any recuperative signs. An air of gloom over everything is pretty well marked, and while there is absolutely nothing to cause immediate grave apprehensions, still there is great fear that all will not end well. There has been no change in the treatment of the patient nor any new features of the case nor any new food administered.

Midnight Bulletin.

Soon after the evening bulletin was issued the attending surgeons began to notice a change for the worse in some of the president's symptoms. He became more restless than during the day and his pulse more frequent until it reached about 120 beats, and he began to be subject to hallucinations with regard to his circumstances and surroundings. Most of the time he seemed rational, but at intervals, especially just after waking, he talked incoherently, and did not seem conscious of his situation. An examination was made of the inflamed parotid gland, and its appearance gave reason to apprehend serious consequences. Little, more could be done for it, however, than to continue poulticing, and the general method of treatment adopted yesterday. During the evening the patient slept little but was very restless and awoke at short intervals. At about 10 o'clock his pulse began to subside and he seemed to be gradually passing in to a quieter condition. At this hour his pulse has fallen to 112 and he is asleep. There has, however, been no marked change in his general condition.

A Restatement.

To-day has been one of much anxiety about the White House, and fear that the president is certainly approaching his end is very well defined. Hope has not disappeared, however, by any means, and there is a chance yet for recovery. The stomach remains unrebellious. He has taken about the same amount of liquid nourishment to-day as yesterday, retains his nourishment and twice to-day seemed to relish it. The swelling in the parotid gland is about the same as yesterday after lancing, and although it has discharged some to-day the discharge has been very slight and not satisfactory. The swollen gland causes continued irritation and pain. It troubles the president very appreciably. The evening's bulletin compared with the bulletin of the same hour last evening is a better document, but last night's bulletin was issued after an operation, the opening of the gland, had been performed. For this reason there is no real parallel between these two bulletins. Comparing the bulletin of to-night with Tuesday night's bulletins gives a better comparison. This shows that the president is not as well as then, on the contrary considerably worse. He seems to be losing strength instead of gaining, and to gain strength is absolutely necessary now for any encouragement to be given. The food he takes does not assimilate and build him up, and his blood seems to become more and more impoverished. There is no recuperation.

Grant's Views.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—General Grant was at the Fifth Avenue hotel to-night, and said that the condition of the president was in his opinion very critical. It was a very ominous sign when Dr. Boynton gave up hope.

WALL STREET

In direct Communication with the White House—Operators Prepared to take Advantage of any change.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Inter-Ocean's Washington: It was rumored lately that some Wall street brokers had means to know the condition of the president and what was occurring at the White House. It is now positively known that some one in New York knew of the intention to summon Agnew before the president's family did. It was kept a profound secret here, but was known in Wall street by noon. That some one who has special means of knowing the president's condition is employed in furnishing information to stock jobbers, is shown by the fact that three days ago a man appeared here and told several persons that he had come to make arrangements for a direct wire from the White House to a broker's office in Wall street, but found that he had been forestalled. He offered to prove by files of the Western Union telegraph, that dispatches went directly from the White House to Cortlandt place in New York, a bank broker's office. This gentleman said that he would give $10,000 to know five minutes in advance that the president was dead. If more convincing proof is needed it only remains to give the cipher by which it is believed that communication is carried on between a person who has special facilities for knowing the patient's actual condition and certain other parties on Wall street. It is not asserted that the key given below embraces quite all of the cipher, but there is enough given to show that some one is trafficking upon the life or death of the nation's patient. The cipher is as follows, being literally transcribed as far as known at this hour:

1—"Harry," will mean he is improving.
2—"Mary," improving nicely.
3—"B[illegible]," failing.
4—"Frank," failing rapidly.
5—"New York," holding his own.
6—"M. B.," probably die.
7—"[illegible]," surely die.
8—"D. E. B.," might rally [illegible] recover.
9—"[illegible]," Surely recover.
10—"Bath," gaining.
11—"Sam," gaining strength.
12—"Jersey City," do not credit reports.
13—"Brooklyn," no danger.
14—"Washington," out of danger.

15—It is not clear what is meant by No. 15. There is reason to believe that 12 has been sent more frequently than others.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Upon investigation [illegible] regarding the story telegraphed this morning that a cipher was being used to inform Wall street of the condition of affairs at the White House, your correspondent [illegible] upon indubitable evidence that [illegible]

"DEATH OR INABILITY."

Western Railroads propose to Force Arthur to Assume the Duties of President.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—It is reported that officers of the Central Pacific have been considering the advisability of a mandamus to compel Vice-President Arthur to appoint an auditor of railroad accounts on the ground that the business is now without a head, and that they are compelled in consequence to rest under the odium of the charge to defraud the government, while they are really anxious to proceed to trial. Some time ago there was a stay of proceedings granted on motion of Assistant U. S. District Attorney Clarke in the circuit court in New York until thirty days after the appointment of an auditor of railroad accounts by the president, and extending the time of taking testimony till three months after the expiration of the stay, thus making a delay on the motion of counsel of four months after the commissioner shall be named. Defendants, it is said, intend to base their application for mandamus upon instructions of Attorney General MacVeagh to Mr. Clarke, in which he said that the case must rest as it is until the president is able to act upon commissioner, thus especially admitting the constitutional inability of the president.

The railroad men will claim that it was upon this representation that delay was ordered by the court. It appears that the law creating the office of auditor of railroad accounts is so constructed that a section provides that in case of a vacancy the deputy chief clerk shall perform the duties of the office until the successor is appointed. The act creating the office of auditor of railroad accounts does not provide for any deputy or chief clerk so that in this case there is no one who can under the law perform the duties. The gentleman in the office now is simply a bookkeeper whom Secretary Kirkwood has placed there to keep the books, but he has no official status and no one can do the duties of the auditor till the president shall appoint some one to the vacancy. In the meantime the [illegible] not referred to above makes it mandatory upon the auditor, who does not now exist, to examine the books and accounts of the railroads, west, north and south of the Missouri river, to which is being granted subsidies in bonds or lands, to certify to their correctness and to see that the laws are carried out relative to land grant roads. The law says that the auditor shall do this or some one he may authorize and in exercise. It is reported that the Central Pacific will lay claim to enforced hardships in the matter now pending between them and the government. The Atlantic and Pacific and New Orleans and Pacific roads also complain.

Ready for Adjournment.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The commons to-day passed the appropriation bill. The house adjourned until Saturday, when it will meet to be prorogued.

Parnell Rages.

Parnell's manifesto to electors at North Durham is most violent. It entirely ignores the land act and declares it impossible for the Irish party to enter into an alliance with any section which allows itself to be used to support a coercionist ministry who banished personal liberty from Ireland and reduced it to a worse condition than that of Russia.

Another Contest.

Mr. Johnson of [illegible], founder and secretary of the Irish laborers league, will contest Tyrone in the interest of the Irish labor movement.

The English Land Question.

The Daily News says: It has become evident that English tenants mean to bestir themselves to obtain redress of their legitimate grievances. Various agencies are co-operating to bring the English land laws within the range of political parties. Gladstone has recently repeated his opinion as to the desirability of legislating on the subject without delay.

Failed of Election.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—As Girard, under secretary of the ministry of agriculture and commerce did not obtain the necessary majority of the election for member of the chamber of deputies, he has tendered his resignation. The minister declined to accept the resignation, and efforts are making to get Girard elected elsewhere. He is the only member of the government not re-elected.

Gambetta.

Gambetta has decided to accept election for the first Belleville circumscription, and not stand for another ballot in the second. In a letter to constituents, Gambetta says: "We shall persevere in a progressive policy, subject to the will of the country, expecting nothing from force, and repelling both utopian and reactionary policies. A Railroad to Let.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 25.—At noon the trustees of the Cincinnati Southern railway began to open bids for lease of the Cincinnati Southern, the lease to be for 25 years, in five periods of five years each, at separate annual rentals during each of the five periods. Ten bids were put in for seven interests or syndicates, the lowest being from the Louisville and Nashville Co. They bid for the first period half a million annually, second period, $700,000 annually, third period, $800,000 annually; fourth period, $900,000; fifth period, $1,000,000. The highest bid was that of Samuel Thomas and his associates, who bid for the first period $800,000; second, $1,000,000; third, $1,250,000; fourth, $1,376,000; fifth, $1,650,000. The board will not decide just yet on the bid.

Drought in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 25.—The city is flooded with stock, countrymen bringing them in rather than feed them at a great loss. They must haul corn from the city to feed if they keep the usual number. There has been but little rain in two months. Early corn is destroyed, and the late crop is damaged.

Going Northward.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Commander [illegible] has reported to the navy department the arrival July 24 of the U. S. steamer Alliance at Hammerfest, Norway. He had obtained supplies and a pilot, and would sail July 26th for Spitzbergen. Ice was reported very heavy to the northward and several vessels returned, reporting that they were unable to get through to Spitzbergen.

National Guests.

The Yorktown centennial commission and citizens of Washington and Baltimore have decided to entertain guests in Baltimore, Oct. 11, 12 and 13, and in Washington Oct. 13, 14 and 15. There are expected to be twenty guests from the French government, and France will send one or two of her war vessels with troops. They will arrive about the 5th of Oct.

ALASKA NEWS.

[illegible]

Her majesty's ship [illegible] had sailed for Victoria. Rev. Drs. Jackson and [illegible] with the missionaries Styles and Chapman arrived at Sitka [illegible]

On the 17th inst. the Los Angeles sailed for Harrisburg, and on the same day the Jamestown sailed for San Francisco.

Among the passengers who sailed for Harrisburg were Governor Newell and a large party of tourists, together with the delegates to the convention called to meet at Harrisburg to take measures for the representation of Alaska in the next congress. Among the delegates was the Rev. S. H. Young of Wrangel, who has traversed personally the whole extent of the missionary field in Alaska and located the best positions for missionary stations [illegible]

Harrisburg is lively and [illegible]. New quartz claims have been [illegible] doing well where the water supply is sufficient. It is reported that San Francisco capitalists contemplate putting in a [illegible] mill [illegible]

TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.

On the 16th inst. the convention at Harrisburg was called to order at 11 A. M., when the following delegates were found present:

Harrisburg—W. B. Roberts, Jr., J. D. [illegible], P. V. Wilson, John Dix and H. Boren.

Sitka—Major M. P. Berry, [illegible] Newell, [illegible], Col. M. S. Hall, E. Bean.

Wrangel—[illegible] Crittenden, W. [illegible] Stephens, Rev. S. Hall Young, R. F. Cutler, W. W. Bennett.

The permanent organization was effected by the election of W. B. Roberts, Jr., as permanent chairman, Rev. S. H. Young, secretary, and [illegible] Wells sergeant-at-arms.

The following memorial was then unanimously adopted:

Memorial of the people of Alaska to the President and Congress of the United States: The residents of the territory of Alaska find themselves at this day in an anomalous and most remarkable situation. The supreme power of the proprietary government, of which this territory became the property fourteen years ago, has failed thus far to provide [illegible]

Second. The Indians of the Alexandrian archipelago, of whom there are about 6000, have a great respect for any form of law, executed by legal authority, and were civil government once established there would be no necessity for the retention of an armed vessel here, the expense of which is much greater than that of a civil government would be. But without civil law and the means of its prompt execution it will be necessary to continue an armed force in these waters.

Third. The recent discoveries of rich deposits of the more precious metals in southeastern Alaska, will undoubtedly prove sources of great wealth and are already attracting immigration. Without the extension of the land laws so as to place the lands in the market and the laws to perfect titles and protect capital its development must be greatly retarded. Another great resource of this section is the timber, [illegible]

Fourth. Besides these there are two other resources, the fur trade, which in this section is derived from the native tribes, and the fisheries, a [illegible] source of immense wealth, but also needing [illegible] for its protection and development.

We do represent that by reason of these facts there exists a present and urgent necessity for civil government of that portion of Alaska, which includes the mineral and timber belt of the territory, [illegible]

We do further declare that for the want of such government this portion of Alaska has been for 14 years a useless piece of territory to the United States, while with its development, its civilization and value would be rapidly advanced. We therefore respectfully, but most earnestly insist that such a form of government be immediately provided [illegible] the primary necessity in order to the proper understanding of our wants, we respectfully demand the accrediting of the delegate to be elected under the proceedings now proposed as the legal and true representative of this people and ask that he be accepted as such and by the popular house of congress. We hold it to be undeniably true that such representation is one of the essential principles of citizenship. It is especially necessary here in order to prevent misrepresentation [illegible] and it is especially accorded us by the letter of our general laws and is the essence of American liberty and institutions. If it be objected that there has been no enabling act to authorize such action, then we reply that the failure of congress to prescribe the manner in which we may acquire possession of an admitted right should not be held to have destroyed our effort to possess it, made in compliance with the spirit of the laws and by the best means at our disposal. This would be to take advantage of a wrong in order to perpetuate it. To deny not only a chartered privilege but also the natural right of the people in the absence of the form of law to establish their will by voice at the polls.

Wherefore we pray that the full form of our petition may be granted and our delegate received as the legal representative of this territory in the forty-seventh congress of the United States, [illegible]

Done in convention this 16th day of August, [illegible], at the town of Harrisburg, Alaska. W. B. Roberts, president; S. Hall Young, secretary, and [illegible] delegates.

Provision was then made for holding an election [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] in the taxes before [illegible] secure a full [illegible]. This is the only territory [illegible] revenue beyond the [illegible]. The treasury of the United [illegible] already proved a rich investment [illegible] have scarcely been [illegible]. Remote from great [illegible] with no telegraphic [illegible] from the great centers of civilization, your grievances [illegible] your necessities, deprivations and [illegible] are unknown. You are improperly treated because the government and people of the states are in a great measure ignorant of your condition. This very building in which you are now holding this historic convention is an illustration, [illegible]. You need at least courts of justice, magistrates and police force. Your [illegible] land, mining and [illegible] interests and agricultural resources, demand land offices and all the machinery of [illegible]. The government, [illegible] millions into other territories will not [illegible] to deny to this territory from which it has already received so much revenue, and by which [illegible] the small outlay necessary for its [illegible] proper government. You have my best wishes for your success. I assure you that so far as my efforts will avail, they will be heartily exerted in your behalf. During my brief sojourn in Washington at the coming session of congress, I will [illegible] very vigorously [illegible] the resolution in which [illegible] the claims of this important section of that great northwestern Pacific empire which according to my belief is destined in the course of time by the progress and future development of its agricultural, mineral, fishing, fur, manufacturing and commercial resources and advantages to astonish the world. [illegible] I repeat, is anomalous, and so far as I know, without precedent. The constitution guarantees to every state [illegible] form of government [illegible] the surrender of natural right of the citizen [illegible] all these resolve the claim to possession of civil government and I will say [illegible] that if the government of the United States cannot afford you the usual appliances for the protection of life and property, the sole function of the government, it would be better to withdraw its flag, the emblem of its authority and power, from your waters and your land, and allow you as a free people to establish a government of your own. Indeed, it would have been far better for Alaska to have remained under Russian despotism than to be in its present ungoverned, unprotected, helpless and most unfortunate condition.

The address was greeted with great and loud continued applause. Resolutions were adopted expressing deep sympathy for President Garfield in his affliction, thanking Gov. Newell and asking his assistance in Washington, and proclaiming that the convention was non-partisan in its motives and character, and intended for the benefit of all citizens of all races; also thanking the Pacific Coast Steamship Company and the officers of the steamer Los Angeles and others for courtesies extended during the session of the convention, and requesting the press of the Pacific coast and throughout the country at large, to publish the proceedings for the benefit of the public.

The names prominent for candidates for the position of delegate to congress, are those of Major M. P. Berry and Col. M. D. Ball. It is quite probable there will be a lively contest among the friends of the two candidates.

Commander Glass has received from the navy department an official communication, fully approving and sustaining his course in Alaska. It is probable Commander [illegible], his successor, will continue the policy already inaugurated by Com. Glass.

The Los Angeles brought down $15,000 in gold dust.

THROW PHYSIC TO THE DOGS.

A great portion of the suffering and distress in this country is due to the fact that the people take too much physic and too many drugs. Swallowing

POISON.

Spurts of disgusting mucous from the nostrils or upon the tonsils, Watery Eyes, Snuffles, Buzzing in the Ears, Deafness, Crackling sensations in the Head, Intermittent Pains over the Eyes, Fœtid Breath, Nasal Twang, Scabs in the Nostrils, and Tickling in the Throat are

SIGNS of CATARRH.

No other such loathsome, treacherous and undermining malady curses mankind. One-fifth of our Children die of diseases generated by its Infectious Poison, and one-fourth of living men and women drag out miserable existences from the same cause. While asleep, the impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs to poison every part of the system.

Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure absorbs the purulent virus and kills the seeds of poison in the farthest parts of the system. It will not only relieve, but certainly cure Catarrh at any stage. It is the only remedy which in our judgment, has ever yet really cured a case of Chronic Catarrh.

[illegible] for the sake [illegible] may [illegible] domestic depot. It will [illegible] facilities [illegible] with [illegible] house [illegible] connected with each [illegible] readily and rapidly as [illegible] between kitchen and table. It will be so arranged as to receive materials [illegible] whether from the [illegible] or the [illegible] market; to deal with them as [illegible] and to return the same to the house [illegible] in the best and promptest manner. It will furnish heat throughout each house for all purposes and at all temperatures; it will afford light and supply power for driving machinery for its own work as well as for certain lighter purposes in the several houses; it will put each member of the little community it serves into instant communication with all the world, and finally it will reduce the cost of living twenty-five or thirty per cent.

This is an agreeable picture. Here is a plan that proposes to meet the embarrassments and discomforts occasioned by the chronic failure of domestic service, to avoid the weariness of flesh and spirit induced by housekeeping cares with its attendant waste of energy and capacity in petty toils, and at the same time to preserve the retirement of the home inviolate. This would have justly been regarded as a visionary scheme till the agencies that may make it effective had been called into existence. But now it seems practicable enough.

To mention the telephone, the electric light and the pneumatic express is to suggest the chief agencies through which all this may be accomplished. Pneumatic tubes and telephone wires will extend from the central depot to every house in the square. The wires will also connect the depot with the telephone and telegraphic system of the city and world. The tubes communicating with each house will be large enough to convey most articles that usually go into the kitchen, and will be fitted with carrying-cylinders of various sizes and descriptions suited to the wants of the family. With these trusty, reticent, obedient servants always at command, the housekeeper can carry on the business of the home in business-like fashion, and the invasion of the home by the employes of the butcher, the baker and the grocer, with baskets, bundles and boxes will be a thing of the past. The home will be relieved from heavy labor and dirty drudgery; and with no dirt coming into the house, with no fires to tend, with none of the incessant calls to the door to meet trades-folk and to receive supplies, with cooking, washing, cleaning, sweeping and scrubbing reduced to an unimagined minimum, domestic service will be shorn of half its terrors, and more than half its cost." So, when "the dirt-making toils of house-keeping are taken from the home and consigned to an organized establishment, and there brought under subjection to steam and electricity," a result will be realized which is plainly foreshowed in the organization of recent discoveries through mechanical appliances, of which the details are to be settled by tentative effort and varied experience. It is not to be romance at all, but business of the most thorough kind.

ENGLISH TRADE POLICY.

The National Fair Trade league of England, in a recent manifesto declares it a object to be "to promote trade with the colonies and dependencies of Great Britain on a principle of reasonably free interchange, and to agitate for such readjustments as shall prevent the products of foreign states which refuse to deal with Great Britain on a basis of fair trade from unduly competing with the products of home labor." This is explained further by the statement that commodities produced in colonies or dependencies that do not discriminate against another country should be free from all taxation, while similar commodities from nations which do discriminate or do not trade fairly, should be subjected to a duty, moderate at first, but to be increased as circumstances would justify. In pursuance of this policy it is resolved to adopt measures as rapidly as possible to develop colonial resources, and to regulate the efflux of British capital into regions owing allegiance to the British crown, instead of into countries maintaining hostile tariffs. The consequence of this policy, the league confidently believes, will be "to transfer the great food growing industries which we employ from protective foreign nations who refuse to give us their custom in return to our own colonies and dependencies." There is no doubt that it lies within the power of Great Britain to develop this policy to large results. It will take some years to do it, but the enormous accumulations of British capital and the vast extent of British colonial possessions render the project a very practicable one. Nobody doubts that the fertility of the colonies and dependencies of Great Britain is equal to the production of many times the quantity of food which she has to import; and though a series of years would be required to develop their food producing resources, yet the foresight, energy and perseverance of the English people will be equal to the problem, if once they resolve deliberately to undertake it. Of course the adoption of such a policy by Great Britain would be a severe temporary blow to the industry of the United States; but as it would soon teach our people the folly and wrong of all obstructions to freedom in trade, it would bring its compensations in the end. Some singular medical statistics were [illegible] at the [illegible] medical conference at London. France has but one physician for every [illegible] inhabitants, while Great Britain has one for every [illegible], and the United States one for every 770. But of the number of physicians is remarkably small, or there is an error in the count. But the French are a remarkably healthy people, which may account for the small number of physicians—that is, if we do not take the small number of the physicians as accounting for the health of the people.

During twelve years ended May 1, 1881, the Central Pacific railroad brought to this coast 521,100 passengers. During the same period it carried 306,100 away. The gain to population by this source has been 205,000. The largest number came in 1875-76. Last year the gain was the smallest in the history of the road—31,520 arriving, and 29,000 departing.

A GENERAL INVITATION

Is extended to strangers passing through the city to see this store, and to inspect all its parts as minutely as they may like, without any regard to the purchase of goods. In late summer the stock is as little as we can get on with, because the fall is coming with new and different things; but even in August, when wants are fewest, and when the new things are so near, our trade is a river, and our stock is big enough to supply it. All sorts of Seasonable Clothing for Men and Boys at Lowest Prices.

New York Boot and Shoe House,

NO. 193 FIRST STREET.

PORTLAND, AUGUST 24, 1881.

TO THE PUBLIC:

I take great pleasure in informing you that I have opened the premises No. 193 First street lately occupied by Mooney & Valentine, with an Extensive and Assorted Stock of BOOTS and SHOES, which I have had manufactured under my personal supervision by the best Eastern and California manufacturers. I purchase my goods only from first hands, thereby saving intermediate profits, and which insures all goods to be manufactured as desired, at the same time being a material saving to purchasers and a warrantee that they are buying goods of a superior make.

In entering this, our new field of enterprise, we are actuated by the three principles of a strictly legitimate business firm, it being our effort to remedy the evil effects of unreliable establishments and to guarantee the public

FAIR TREATMENT AND FULL VALUE

Of their investment. As I am a practical manufacturer myself, possessing a thorough knowledge of the business, there cannot be the remotest doubt regarding my ability to give satisfaction.

Respectfully inviting a call, I remain, Very Respectfully Yours,

H. GALLICK.

AN OPPORTUNITY

Taken advantage of by every one is the most convincing proof that the scheme lately introduced in the disposal of goods at

meets with public favor, in spite of a mercenary few, jealous of its great success, endeavoring by misrepresentation to mislead our patrons. The fact that every day articles ranging in value from $1 to $125 have been secured by the investment of

One Single Dollar,

Shows for itself that every representation made by us is true to the letter.

Every Department

Will to-day contain new and choice selections of articles received by last steamer, direct from the East, in response to our telegraphic order to rush our Fall lot of goods. In order to supply the great demand now being made on our stock. CALL TO-DAY AT

... Mr. Gibson's habit.

DEATH OF MRS. WALLER.—The many friends of Mrs. C. B. Waller will be pained to learn that this most estimable old lady has passed forever from the scenes of earth. She died at 5 o'clock last evening at No. 2 Oak street, between First and Second. Deceased was aged 69 years. A devoted wife and affectionate mother, she has gone to the silent land of shadows, leaving behind the fragrant memory of a pure, womanly and noble life. No one knew "Mother Waller," as she was familiarly called, but to respect and admire her. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MAMMOTH PRUNES.—Mr. N. Pearcy, who resides near the mouth of the Willamette in this county, is probably entitled to the premium for success in the matter of growing prunes. He has sent to this office three specimens of the variety, Gros D'Agen, raised by him which are the largest we have ever seen, the three weighing a fraction over a pound, and a single one measuring 5¼ by 7½ inches in circumference. This size might be beaten with pumpkins, but with prunes, hardly ever.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The P. C. Advocate says: "The address by Mrs. Andrew, dean of the woman's college connected with the Willamette University, at the anniversary of the Educational Society of the Oregon conference, is very highly spoken of by all who heard it. It evinced her high qualifications for the position to which she has been elected, and is an assurance that those who entrust daughters to her care may expect the best results as to both moral and mental culture."

ESTIMATES FOR STREETS.—W. S. Chapman, city surveyor, has prepared estimates of improvements on Columbia street from Third to Eighth streets, the total being 1274 cubic yards of excavation, 253 ... 312 feet new sidewalk, 126 new crosswalk, ... relay, 1720 cubic yards of macadam; also, for the improvement of North Front street, from ... making 258 cubic yards of excavation, 2010 of embankment and 712 lineal feet of plank road.

BIDS ON THE MARINERS' HOME.—Bids will continue to be received by the architect, J. Krumbein, ... for work on the Mariners' Home until next Monday evening. During the week the board of directors of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society will pass upon all bids submitted, and the result will be announced probably by next Thursday.

FROM SITKA, ALASKA.—A letter received this evening, bearing date August 13, states that the U. S. ... Jamestown has just been relieved by the Wachusett. The reception of a valuable package of ... from the Portland Seamen's Bethel, for the officers and crew, was gratefully acknowledged by ... Rockwell, lieutenant commander.

TILLAMOOK ROCK.—The Astorian of Thursday says: ... H. S. Wheeler, superintendent of construction of Tillamook rock, arrived here yesterday overland, having got off the rock into a row boat and landed on the beach near the Seaside house. He informs us that the work on the rock will be completed by the ... of September."

ALARM OF FIRE.—Last evening about 9:30 o'clock a ... barn on Lincoln street between Front and ... was observed on fire. The fact was communicated at once to Tiger, No. 5, and in a few minutes ... engine was at the scene and the fire quickly extinguished. Loss nominal. No general alarm was sounded.

IN FULL BLAST.—Harvest is in full progress in ... prairie. There are about 15 threshing machines all busy at work in the vicinity of Gervais. ... steam threshers are also in operation. Grain ... No. 1 quality, and averaging about 20 to 25 bushels per acre, some fields yielding from 20 to 30 bushels.

WAIVED EXAMINATION.—Chas. A. Nicholls, who, on complaint of Mollie Moss, was arrested a few days ago on a charge of perjury, has waived examination and been held to await the action of the grand jury. His bonds were fixed at $250. In default ... Nicholls was committed.

APPOINTED ROUTE AGENT.—Dr. W. T. Spencer of ... ville, has been recently appointed mail agent on the route between Portland and Walla Walla. He is said to be a very competent man and his appointment is regarded as a good one.

THE ELDER.—The steamer Geo. W. Elder is now lying at the foot of Washington street, where the remainder of her cargo will be discharged.

BRIEF NOTES.

Steamer Oregon off.

The "State" due this evening.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN is just out.

Near at hand—the new dramatic season.

The news from Washington is gloomy enough.

A new water main is being laid along Second street.

Studies will be resumed in the public schools of the city next Thursday.

The spire of the new Catholic church in East Portland will be the tallest in that city.

"Bothered is the Bull Dog, Jim can Come," has taken the place of that other popular song, "Empty is the Cradle, Baby's Gone."

Mrs. Logus has had a well sunk in front of her property on Fourth street, East Portland, and ... will have a double force pump put in, which will be of power sufficient to throw water all over the buildings.

We read in an exchange of a man whose grown up daughter bore the name of Sarah Jane changed it to ... Ella a few months ago, in hopes some one would carry her off; but she still remains on his hands. There are some Umber Ellas safe anywhere.

AMUSEMENTS.

GOING TO VANCOUVER.—Mr. J. P. Howe, business manager for W. E. Sheridan, visits Vancouver to-day for the purpose of arranging an excursion from there on next Tuesday evening for the citizens of that pleasant little city who wish to see Mr. Sheridan as Richard III, that being the play for that evening. There is no doubt but that he will meet with great success, as he has had a great many requests to make an arrangement of this kind. The Wasco will probably be the steamer making the excursion, leaving Vancouver about 6 P. M. and returning immediately after the performance.

LOST MANHOOD.—At Masonic hall last evening ... Truesdell addressed an attentive audience of gentlemen, and delivered a profoundly instructive lecture on "Lost Manhood and How to Regain It." This evening at 8 o'clock sharp, the same subject will be completed.

SUN SPOTS.

ALBANY, Oregon, Aug. 26, 1881.

THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

It may be of some interest to your readers to know that there are two of the largest sun spots that have been noticed for some years on the solar surface. With a darkened or colored glass they can be seen with the naked eye if one has good vision ... any ordinary opera glass will show them. They are in the southeastern quarter.

CORONA.

A GEM OF ART.—We notice on exhibition at the Palace of Art, a beautiful oil painting of ... Lou O'Connor, the favorite child elocutionist. ... Mr. E. Springer painted the portrait for Mrs. ... who is highly pleased with it, and will ... the painting on exhibition until October, ... purposes taking it east.

PROPOSED MONUMENT.

[illegible] ... a monument over the grave of Bishop Haven. It will be a place where Christians of all names shall be glad to go, and reading the record, feel the inspiration to noble deeds for Christ and the gospel." That utterance will find its fitting response in the heart of other churches, but most of all the Methodist Episcopal church.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.

[Sentinel.]

All the reverend fathers who have been in the city in attendance at the synod and the provincial council, have returned to their missions to continue their labors.

The Right Rev. Bishops Junger and Brondel spent last Sunday in Vancouver, and returned to this city Monday in order to assist in the closing labors of the provincial council. The council adjourned sine die last Tuesday.

Rev. Father Gaudon, formerly stationed at the Dalles, has arrived from San Francisco, and has been appointed to succeed Rev. P. Macken as rector of Oregon City. The reverend gentleman will officiate in his new field of labor next Sunday.

Sister Theresa, superioress of St. Vincent's hospital, is at present enjoying a long needed vacation from her labors, at Cowlitz prairie, where the order has an establishment in successful operation. During Sister Theresa's absence, Sister Conrad is in charge of the hospital.

Rev. Father Buchard begins a mission of four days at Olympia to-day, closing Sunday evening. Next Thursday, the 1st of September, he will give a mission at Seattle, and will close on the evening of the following Sunday. From there Father Buchard will proceed to Port Townsend.

MILITARY AND PERSONAL.

[Vancouver Independent.]

Lieut. Geo. B. Backus, 1st cavalry, stationed at Fort Klamath, has been granted one month's leave.

Capt. A. S. Daggett, 2d infantry, absent on leave, is now with his family in the interior of N. Y. state.

Capt. C. A. H. McCauley, A. Q. M., is assigned to the charge of the supply depot at Rawlins, Wyoming.

Capt. Robert Pollock, 21st infantry, returned to Fort Townsend from San Francisco on Sunday last.

Major Edward P. Pierson, 21st infantry, has arrived in San Francisco, en route to his station at Vancouver barracks.

Recruits for the 1st cavalry to the the number of 85 will be sent to this coast in September, of which half will go to companies in this department.

Orders have been issued to all the posts in the department requiring the officers and soldiers to go out upon target practice once each week, weather and extra duty only preventing.

In consequence of the departure of Capt. W. F. Spurgin, Co. I, 21st infantry, for West Point, Lieut. C. A. Williams, 21st infantry, is returning to Fort Lapwai, to take command of the company.

Major Geo. M. Sternberg, formerly stationed at Walla Walla, has been relieved from duty in connection with the national board of health, and will proceed from Baltimore, Md., to San Francisco, Cal., and report to the commanding general, department of California, for assignment to duty.

THE COURTS.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, J.

THURSDAY, Aug. 25, 1881.

U. S. vs Fred A. Reed—Maltreating a sailor on board the American ship Palmyra; fined $25.

U. S. vs John Moore—Breaking open a letter containing a postal order and attempting to draw the money; sentenced to the penitentiary for the period of one year.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

J. Kohn extends a general invitation to all strangers visiting, or passing through the city, to give him a call at his clothing palace, corner of First and Morrison streets. He will endeavor to make a call pleasant and profitable to all.

AUCTION SALES.

An important assignee sale will be held to-day at 10 A. M., by Gilman & Co. A splendid lot of choice furniture will be sold at No. 42 First street. See ad elsewhere.

In the little Scotch church of Edensor there is a black marble tablet sacred to the memory of a faithful servant of Mary Queen of Scots, and who was one among her devoted adherents during her captivity in Lochleven castle. A later inscription records the fact "that he died at Chatsworth, in his thirty-fourth year, worn out with the fatigues and hardships he had encountered in the service of his royal mistress," adding as his highest meed of praise, that "he had assisted in delivering this illustrious princess from her doleful prison in Lochleven."

Commissioner Raum has decided that "Rock and Rye" is not a medicine, but a beverage, and taxable as such. That settles it. If Rock and Rye is not a medicine editors will no longer drink it. If any of them have formed an appetite for the stuff, which they find difficult to overcome, they should try cod liver oil, which is a medicine but not a beverage.

We are not at all sorry to learn that at a bull fight in Marseilles, on a recent Sunday, a platform fell, killing ten people and wounding a great many. It must have been great fun for the bulls, who rarely have the laugh on their side on occasions of this kind.

The article which the late Dean Stanley wrote for Scribner's Monthly, and which has been returned to England to be deciphered by some one familiar with the author's hand writing, treats of the life and writings of the Rev. F. W. Robertson.

Dalles Times: P. P. Morgan of Three mile creek, Wasco county, shows a sample of a new species of barley which has grown on his farm this season. The grains come out of the shell like wheat, and have a dark covering. He got a pound from southern California last year and experimented with it. This pound yielded over one hundred, and proves to be an excellent feed. Mr. Morgan intends sending samples to the agricultural department at Washington City.

Three new brick buildings are now in process of erection on the burnt district in Colfax, also several very creditable wooden buildings.

Dr. F. W. Sparling, the new register of the Vancouver land office, is the department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic for Washington territory.

Alpha Dain, who escaped from the Steilacoom asylum several weeks ago, was found and taken charge of at Spangle a few days ago. He was subsequently taken to Cheney where his parents reside, but when left alone a moment he again made his escape. Further search has proved fruitless.

A military company has been formed at New Tacoma with the following officers: Captain, George Bachman; first lieutenant, W. J. Fife; second lieutenant, F. R. H. Wing; sergeants, Howard Carr, Geo. Farley, Wm. I. Moore and W. S. Lemay. The election of corporals was postponed for one week.

Spokan Times: The fact that from $40 to $50 worth of Wells, Fargo & Co's stamped envelopes are sold and used in this city per month, is, —or ought to be —sufficient evidence that the postoffice here is not presided over in a manner either satisfactory to the public or to the best advantage of the postal service.

At the town of Puyallup fourteen men are at work opening the way for the new water works. A reservoir holding fifty thousand gallons of water will furnish a supply in case of fire. Three hydrants will be put in and 250 feet of two-inch hose provided at once. Eleven thousand one hundred feet of pipe will be laid.

Vancouver Independent: Some fifteen years ago Mr. Charles Lee, having some trouble with one of his ears, placed some cotton there, as people often do, and supposed he had afterwards removed it all. Ever since about that time he has been troubled with his hearing in that ear. On Sunday last Dr. J. R. Smith made an examination of the ear, removing from it a part of the wad of cotton placed there fifteen years before. Mr. Lee's hearing is now completely restored.

The following is the official statement of land sales of the U. S. land office and of the Northern Pacific railroad land office for the Pend d'Oreille division for the year ending June 30th, 1881, showing that nearly half a million acres have been disposed of during that year. Sales at Colfax land office from June 30, 1880 to June 30, 1881: cash entries, 23,052.92 acres; homestead, 192,305.71 acres; timber culture, 43,003.49 acres; pre-emption, 78,000.00 acres; total, 263,952.11 acres. Sales at the Northern Pacific railroad land office from June 30, 1880, to June 30, 1881, 237,508.63 acres. Total sales at both offices, 491,470.74.

[illegible] ... The system of leasing ... declared wise and judicious. The system of commutation of sentences is found to be ... a jute factory is considered at length and strongly reprobated. ... The action of Director Everson in basing mileage charges to Folsom from San Francisco and from San Quentin to Oakland is characterized as a ... purpose on his part to increase his claims for mileage. The report gives an opinion of the attorney-general declaring the law giving salary and mileage to directors unconstitutional. The purchase of brick land is ... the method of purchase is condemned. The administration of the board concerning the ... branch prison is condemned. It is recommended that all commitments be made to San Quentin and drawn to other prisons as proper classification may require. The Folsom prison should be made a penal institution and San Quentin reformatory. Prisoners should not be liable to re-arrest on indictment at the gate of the prison on their discharge. They recommend for the present the associate silent system instead of the congregate system now practiced, with a view to the separate silent system in the future. Convicts should learn useful trades, and a superintendent of labor should be appointed. Charges made by the San Jose Mercury were treated at length, and held not to be established, except as regards bartering of his constitutional rights by the warden and liberties allowed convict Denson. A number of irregularities in the management of the prison are condemned. Then follows a general and comparative review of various penal systems and institutions, in which many reforms are suggested. The existing system of the administration of California prisons, is strongly condemned, and especially its partisan political feature. The general tone of the report is condemnatory of the prison system and the administration by directors and wardens. Notwithstanding its length, the report is condensed and direct in style and method, and follows in every particular the outline given by the governor in his letter of appointment and instruction. The report occupies about 20 newspaper columns, and the transcript of testimony which accompanies it, covers 3100 pages of legal cap.

It has been found impossible to maintain the Northern Pacific road on the northern bank of the Yellowstone, on account of periodical overflows. The proposed line on the south bank runs through the Crow reservation, and a meeting was held on the 22d to arrange with the Crow nation for a right of way. The Northern Pacific road is making rapid progress, and settlements are springing up on the Bismarck division with wonderful rapidity.

Mr. Thomas S. Baynes, editor of the "Encyclopædia Britannica," has written an open letter to Mr. J. M. Stoddart, the publisher of an American reprint of that work. Various alterations have been made in the reprint, and the English editor, in consequence, repudiates all responsibility for them.

Wheat.

[illegible] the past week [illegible] than [illegible] last Friday, which [illegible] several [illegible], $1 55 and $1 [illegible] per cental. Prices slightly declined the day following, and have been almost stationary ever since until to-day at $1 50 a $1 51 55 per cental, the ruling rate being a cut between these last quoted figures. To-day owing to favorable reports from abroad the market has again slightly advanced, and $1 55 is readily paid, and in several instances 2½ cents higher. The river being bare of ships or nearly so, present demands are not pressing. On the other hand, holders are not eager to sell, having strong hopes in the future of the market, based on reports of unfavorable weather in England.

Predicting the future of the market, however confidently or conscientiously it be done, is an uncertain and thankless task, and one which The OREGONIAN generally avoids, preferring to give its readers all the facts and leave them to form their own conclusions. However, we will this week overstep the rule. It is the general impression among wheat men that prices cannot go higher, at least not much higher, than the present ruling, this season. The reason for this view is that the surplus here and in California is far above the capacity of tonnage now expected, and that, in consequence, ship owners will be in a position to raise charter rates in pace with any rise in wheat prices abroad, and force their payment. We shall be this season, as we were last, at the mercy of the ship owners, who will adopt a sliding charter scale varying with the changing European market, leaving prices here almost at a standstill and at the lowest notch producers will stand. The fault is not with the shippers of Portland and San Francisco, merely middlemen, who profit by high prices and brisk business just as much as do the farmers, nor, viewed from the commercial standpoint, with ship owners, who naturally get all they can, but with the navigation and tariff laws which curse this country—which compel us to pay freight not only on the cargo of grain which a foreign ship carries to Europe, but upon the load of rocks which she brought out, and prevent American competition, which would put freights at living rates.

ENGLISH MARKETS.

Advices from London and Liverpool have varied a good deal during the week, but to-day are favorable for good prices here. The English crop is again a partial failure, both as regards quantity and quality, and of course we gain by their loss. The following from the Mark Lane Express of Monday is a special dispatch to THE OREGONIAN: "During the past week the weather has damaged and jeopardized the harvest; Mildew is rapidly developing in standing grain and cold nights and hot moist days are causing that in sheaves to sprout. The quantity of wheat from which the very best results were expected is found to be affected by premature ripeness and the quality and yield are disappointing. In both Great Britain and on the continent there has been an advance in the prices of wheat, not solely on account of disappointing harvest. Stocks have been let down low in anticipation of early deliveries. These calculations have been upset by the weather which entirely prevented threshing from fields. The bulk of the crop must go through ordinary sweating in ricks before it comes to any extent on the market. Practically there is no old native wheat.

The advance is in sympathy with foreign values. Wheat opened at an advance of 2s and 1s, closing 3s and 4s dearer. No crop is so difficult to quote on account of variety, quality and scarcity. Foreign trade has been more active. Sellers have been selling up stocks at an advance of 3s and 4s per quarter. Flour has been scarce on spot. On Monday prices improved and Friday values were still firmer. Foreign supplies continue light and show a similar advance. Barley was a shilling dearer in sympathy with other feeding stuffs. Foreign irregular and in favor of sellers. Oats improved a shilling on account of bad prospects of the new crop. Foreign dearer. Maize has advanced 2s since Monday and American mixed parcels 3s. Sales of English wheat during the week were 12,294 quarters at 48s 10d per quarter, against 11,845 quarters at 43s 9d for corresponding week last year."

Charters and Shipping.

There is not a single disengaged vessel in port, and no engagements have been reported during the past week. Under these conditions it is of course difficult to gauge the market. The tendency is upward, as the price of wheat advances, and a good vessel on spot would probably bring close onto 70s. There is no prospect for a change to reasonable rates.

Arrived—Steamship Geo. W. Elder, Lachlan, from San Francisco with the following cargo: 67 cases boots and shoes, 75 pkgs wagon material, 3 pcs marble, 259 cases coal oil, 10 bbls beer, 35 cases beer, 134 bxs crackers, 2 kegs nails, 3 pkgs blocks, 2 safes, 35 pkgs gun carriages, 3 cases machine teeth, 161 pkgs coffee, tea and spices, 7 pkgs syrup, 63 pkgs oil, 6 pkgs turpentine, 1 box labels, 64 pkgs drugs, medicines and acids, 4 bxs raisins, 9 pkgs leather, 1 pkg upholstery goods, 3 scales, 5 crates crockery, 41 cases liquors, 11 pkgs seeds, 8 rolls carpets, 156 pkgs sugar, 293 pkgs groceries, 26 pkgs dry goods, 74 bxs soap, 11 pkgs hams, 5 cases lard, 2 cases hats, 4 bxs yeast powders, 58 prs car wheels, 2 pkgs shoe nails, 1 pkg lasts, 5 pkgs solder, 4 bdls handles, 5 cases woolen goods, 15 pkgs tinware, 4 pkgs coffins, 1 case cigarettes, 172 pkgs hardware, 4 cases clothing, 33 pkgs Chinese mdse, 14 pkgs mill machinery, 1 pkgs furniture, 3500 bxs giant powder.

Cleared—Steamship Oregon, Pohlman, for San Francisco with mails passengers and following cargo: 875 sks wheat, 7 pkgs mdse, 21 empty kegs, 14 bxs sal soda, 64 sks wool, 2 bdls deer skins, 1 trunk, 2 cases hardware, 1 box quartz.

Wool.

There have been no transactions in wool here since our last report. The season being about over, the non-resident buyers have left and buyers for home mills claim to have all the stock they require for carrying them through to next season, hence the few and small shipments that come forward seek a market at San Francisco.

In a few weeks we may expect shipments of fall clip from eastern Oregon, but judging from information received from there, it is almost certain there will be but few flocks shorn there this fall; the disastrous effects of shearing last fall, followed by an extremely hard winter and consequent heavy loss in flocks, will, it is thought, deter almost all from repeating the experiment this season. We say experiment, because the shearing of last fall was but experimental, never having been practiced to any extent hitherto in eastern Oregon and Washington, and the result seems to have been convincing that the coldness of the winters will not admit of fall shearing without incurring great risk of loss in flocks.

Home Produce Market.

Flour is still and higher. The market is still well supplied. The demand for export is very good, all first class country grades meeting with ready sale. For export, Walla Walla flour is preferred. Oats are a trifle weaker, though quotations remain unchanged. The market is well supplied. Hay remains unchanged in price, though the supply is very large. The crop is large, and prospects are for low prices this fall and winter. Mill feed is very firm. The market is almost bare of bran, and it is wanted at full figures. [illegible]

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN,

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast in the Treatment of

ALL CHRONIC & DIFFICULT DISEASES.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of Disease of the generative organs or private disease. He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHŒA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organizations broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

Office—152 and 154 Third St., opposite Masonic Hall. Office Hours—From 10 to 12 A.M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P.M. All letters of professional business must be addressed

King of the Blood.

Is not a "cure all," it is a blood purifier and tonic. Impurity of blood poisons the system, deranges the circulation, and thus induces many disorders known by different names to distinguish them according to effects, but being really branches or phases of that great generic disorder, Impurity of Blood. Such are Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Nervous Disorders, Headache, Backache, General Weakness, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Kidney Disease, Piles, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Skin Disorders, Pimples, Ulcers, Swellings, &c., &c. King of the Blood prevents and cures these by attacking the cause, Impurity of the Blood. Chemists and physicians agree in calling it "the most genuine and efficient preparation for the purpose." Sold by Druggists, $1 per bottle. See testimonials, directions, &c., in pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," wrapped around each bottle.

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5.
